The fiesta doesn't help the business of the town.

Yesterday was a good day for the coroner's country over.

Remember that if you do not get THE REPUBLICAN you do not get the news.

The bears are happy over the action of the House on the silver bill. It has sent down prices.

The man or society that doesn't respect the courts and its decrees cannot be a good citizen.

Emperor William has conferred a baronetcy on Major Wissman, as a recognition of his services in Africa.

One of the dozen or more Democratic defaulting state treasurers was sent to the penitentiary, yesterday. This was Hemingway, of Mississippi.

The Democracy is very sensitive on the conduct of the Rebel Brigadiers in Congress, and with cause, too. The "Rebel Yell" has done a world of harm to the Democracy.

Spokane Falls' street car troubles have quieted down, all hands awaiting legal decision in the case. Spokane has a judge who, evidently, isn't to be trifled with.

No one ever thought of accusing the Herald of being a Republican paper. As a prominent Republican says: "It used to claim to be Republican but no human being could tell what it was." Just so.

Portland, Oregon, demands a recount of its people, because of the faulty manner in which the work was done by the regular enumerators. As we have before remarked, many an ambitious town will have its wings clipped by the census.

Denver is now making a very vigorous protest against the census enumeration. Instead of 175,000 people the city will show only about 120,000. Even that is a very good showing as against 1880, being an increase of about 100 per cent.

The English cabinet has decided to drop the licensing clause of the local taxation bill, but has postponed decision regarding the disposal of license money. The cabinet is in a good deal of a quandary and has a narrow hole from which to escape.

The iron molder's strike in San Francisco has with it a trail of blood, not creditable to the men engaged in it, nor to the city. The tragedy of yesterday is a deplorable one, yet no one will say that the man who fired the shot that killed Coogan was not justifiable.

Silver legislation will help the general business of the country. There is now only about $7 of money to the head in the United States. Thirty-five dollars to the head would not be too much. It would enable us to do five-fold the business. Silver alone can give us more money.

We notice that Brother Wright, late Chief Justice of the Territory, in an interview published in the St. Louis Republic, says that "All Arizona is opposed to the McKinley tariff bill." Much he knows about it. What would Salt River farmers do in competition with Sonora wheat and barley, raised on wages of 12 cents a day and a fanega of corn a week if there was no tariff on these articles.

Mr. Stanley and Miss Tennant attended the Commemoration Day exercises at Oxford University on Wednesday and were given almost an uproarious reception. The degree of Doctor of Civil Law was conferred upon Mr. Stanley and Professor Goodwin of Harvard University. Stanley seems to be very solid with the English people, and as "all the world loves a lover," they have an especial attachment for him now.

Our evening contemporary, the Herald, is still whining for sympathy, and makes an effort to create some for itself by deprecating fair competition. Has the Herald ever before opposed the establishment of a business enterprise in Phoenix? Not much; but it was always ready to boom the new doctor, the new drugstore, the new jeweler, the new furniture man, at so much a line. It is only when its own ox is gored that it whines. Come out of this baby act and be a man. Don't whine.

The "organ" and its schemers have found themselves in a hopeless minority and despised and rejected by every true Republican in the Territory, hence this howl for sympathy.

This is in reference to us. But there must be something wrong about it. The facts do not carry out the assertion. The REPUBLICAN is just forty days old and already has a bona fide paying circulation double that of the Herald. This doesn't look as though THE REPUBLICAN was "despised and rejected," and it certainly has no reason to "howl for sympathy." We don't whine. We are right well, thank you, and will do better. If you don't think so, come over and look at our subscription books.

PECULIAR HARMONY.

Our more or less esteemed contemporary, the Citizen, has a peculiar idea of harmony. What are we to think of men who will attend a convention of their party, there agree on harmony, being loud in their demand for good political feeling and all that and then return to their homes and in the very next issue of an alleged party newspaper renew the old attacks. We have reference to the assault on Governor Wolfley's representation on the Territorial Committee and the covert, unjust and cowardly attack on the letter sent to the Chairman of the Committee by Surveyor General Johnson.

The Citizen's contrast of the letters of Mr. Johnson and Mr. O'Neill was exceedingly unfair. Now as a matter of fact, neither of these letters were read in the committee meeting, nor was the meeting cognizant of their existence. Nor were they, so far as we have heard, considered in any way before the Committee on Resolutions except to report them back without recommendation. Subsequently, by motion, they were returned to their authors. No one, therefore, save the Committee on Resolutions, knew of their existence. Under the action of the committee it was, indeed, a grave breach of confidence on the part of the person who did so to furnish copies thereof to any newspaper. To have given a garbled account, especially as Mr. Johnson's letter, was simply damnable.

So much having been said about these letters, it is but fair that the full text of Mr. Johnson's note should also go before the party in the Territory. To that end we have secured a copy of the letter, which is here given:

TUCSON, ARIZ., June 20, 1890.
 Hon. William Christy, and Members of the Territorial Committee.
 GENTLEMEN—I greatly regret that my official duties are such as to prohibit my going to Phoenix tomorrow, in response to your kind invitation. I more particularly regret my inability to go to listen to the deliberations of the committee on account of the importance of the occasion, preceding as it does the commencement of campaign organization.
 I want to take this occasion to say that I have no misgiving whatever about the Republican outlook for the fall campaign. My experience with Republicans has been to the effect that Republicans are Republicans under whatever circumstances, and if people are disinclined that way, they can find a thousand excuses; and if it is not one thing, it is another, and the sooner they are on the other side of the fence, the safer the party they affect to follow, consequently, inasmuch as these croakings occur every succeeding campaign, I do not attach weight to them, and I look forward to a most brilliant victory for our party in the fall, and trust we may all live to be there in our best bib and tucker. Very respectfully yours,
 (Signed),
 ROYAL A. JOHNSON,
 President Republican Club, Tucson.

It is this letter concerning which there has been so much comment of an adverse character. Surely there is nothing in this letter to which any good Republican can object and no really sincere Republican would use it as a means of disturbing party harmony. Perhaps it is as well that these things should be plainly stated, not in antagonism of the suicidal political policy of the Citizen, but that the Republicans of the Territory may have the honest facts before them and therefrom draw their own conclusions.

In this connection it may be as well also to publish Governor Wolfley's letter to Chairman Christy, so that there may be no further misrepresentation on that score:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
 OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR,
 PHOENIX, June 21, 1890.
 COL. WM. CHRISTY, Chairman Territorial Committee, Phoenix, Arizona.
 DEAR COLONEL—Several members of the committee have at different times asked me to state subjects that have come to my attention, and such as might properly be considered by the Republican Committee that is to meet today. Hitherto, I have declined to do so, fearing that I might be considered officious; on the other hand, lest I might be considered indifferent, I address you as follows, and leave it to your good judgment whether or not to use any or all of the following suggestions for the consideration of the present meeting, to be used in the line of party policy and for future legislation:

Mormonism—Idaho Test Oath.
 Moderate Railroad Rates and Fares.
 Statehood.
 Salaries of Territorial and county officers limited to $2000 per annum, including fees, etc.
 Two North and South Railroads and a connecting branch through the Gila Valley, and the necessary legislation to insure reasonable rates (freights and fares), subject to the approval of Congress.

In Civil cases jury may render verdict after four hours on two-thirds agreeing, and after nine hours on a majority agreeing. In no other cases is a unanimous agreement required, and only in exceptional cases is even a two-thirds majority; almost universally a bare majority carries.

This would save thousands of dollars to the people and more speedily bring litigation to a close. As in Colorado a second trial might be allowed.

Adopt the Colorado mining law that requires a ten-foot shaft or adit to be made for each location, or relocation within ninety days from date of location, or relocation in addition to present requirements.

This adds in development, and prevents the covering of large areas by a few individuals.

Adoption of a survey law making over 12 per cent per annum necessary.

Hope that you will receive and consider this in the same spirit that it is intended, viz: for the good of the party. I remain, yours truly,
 LEWIS WOLFLEY.

This is not only an unobjectionable letter, but it is a wise and suggestive one. It furnishes food for thought and the skeleton on which to build an invincible party policy and it is a matter for regret that it didn't receive the consideration to which it is entitled. We submit it to the honest consideration of good and loyal Republicans and ask them if there is anything in this letter that calls for explanation or defense?

AN IMPORTANT SURVEY.

Deputy Surveyor John C. Smith left Tucson yesterday to survey the western boundary of the White Mountain Indian reservation, under contract with the government.

This is one of the most important surveys that has been made in Arizona, inasmuch as it will determine the locus of rich mines, and other valuable property. Among the mines whose location is in dispute is the Stonewall, and the Tweed. The Stonewall has produced ore worth upwards of $12 per pound, and is without question one of the most promising properties in the Territory. The Tweed is a copper property, and was worked extensively until copper fell to 10¢ cents per pound, when work was stopped. The work was prosecuted under the direction of Professor Douglas, the president of the Copper Queen.

Some time since, the military authorities made a survey of the western boundary, but Congress deemed it advisable that an official survey under the direction of the General Land Office should be made, and a special appropriation for the purpose was made last year.

The line will be in the neighborhood of 110 miles in length, and passes over a very rough country, rich in minerals, but difficult of access. It is estimated that fully two months will be consumed in the work. A military escort accompanies Deputy Smith from Dudleyville, and about ten men will be engaged in the survey.

ARIZONA—AN INVITATION.

Come to the land where mountains and plain stretch grandly away to the sounding shore; Where a great river rolls to the ocean main, And an azure clear sky arches all o'er.

Come where the sun sheds his brightest rays, And fields ever green forever bless the eyes; Where the health-giving zephyr in wantonness plays; In this bounteous land hope and love cannot die.

Come to a land where storms never beat With a gale of fear, or a winter blast; Come, and here you will find the richest rest That God, for his children, on the round earth has cast.

Then come to the land of the mountains and plain, Where nature gives fruitage the whole seasons' round; Where joy fills the heart and banishes pain, And health, peace and pleasure forever abound.

In this goodly land 'tis delectable to live, Men grow grander in mind and broader in thought; For the earth in its fullness so freely doth give, That we feel nature's love and great soul work is wrought.

Defaulting Democratic State Treasurers.

The Intelligence invites attention of the people to the following list of rascally Democratic State Treasurers of Democratic States with the amount of reported robberies:

State Treasurer Herningway of Mississippi stole $315,000.
 State Treasurer Nolan of Missouri stole $32,445.
 State Treasurer Tate of Kentucky stole $120,000.
 State Treasurer Vincent of Alabama stole $80,000.
 State Treasurer Churchill of Arkansas stole $115,000.
 State Treasurer Polk of Tennessee stole $50,000.

Overdue Tax Commissioner Calloway of Arkansas stole $11,000.

State Treasurer of Maryland stole $200,000.

State Treasurer Burke of Louisiana stole $750,000.

Attention, defaulters! Listen to the roll call: Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri and Tennessee. To the head of the column! Forward, march! The vast army of Democratic defaulters in other official positions and places of trust will fall in at the rear, making an innumerable legion of bright and shining lights of Democracy who grandly illustrate the policy and principles of modern Democracy.

CRAZED BY BABY'S DEATH.

A Father and Mother Frantic at the Loss of Their Child.

A strange and pathetic little procession was seen entering this place yesterday morning, writes a Livingston, Texas, correspondent. It consisted of a mud-splashed buggy containing a haggard, disheveled man and woman, with a little coffin at their feet, and Constable Smith leading the poor tired horse, followed by a crowd of grave-faced men. The man and woman were Dr. William Ripperdan and his wife from Shady Burn, a little place about eighteen miles east of here, and the coffin contained the body of their child. The history of their appearance here is one of the saddest possible.

About fifteen months ago this child was born to the couple, who had reached middle age without children, and the baby became the idol of the parents' hearts. It was touching to witness their devotion to the little creature, which they attended constantly, and when, about two weeks ago, death robbed them of it the warmest sympathy was felt for them throughout the community.

Preparations for its burial were made, but on the morning appointed Dr. Ripperdan and his wife, together with the coffin containing the body, were found to have disappeared. Their house was left open, and only the doctor's buggy and horse were gone. As they had no relatives to interfere, they were not sought for, and the general supposition was that they had taken the child elsewhere for burial. But news came in a few days that a buggy containing a man and woman, with a coffin was being driven aimlessly about the country. All who met them declared that one or the other of them was the doctor or his wife. Sometimes they were run across seated by a running stream partaking of a meal of crackers, potted meat, etc., with the horse cropping the grass near by and the casket beside them. When accosted they would be taken from the stream, and then they hoped by prayer to prevail on the deity to restore it to life, quoting the miracle of the widow's son.

They were seen near here the day before yesterday and were taken charge of by Constable Smith and a posse, who brought the buggy and its occupants with their melancholy treasure to town, where the remains of the child were buried. The poor father and mother were frantic, raving and praying all through the ceremony. They were given a room at the Mayberry house and locked in, it being hoped that as the baby was really buried they might resign themselves to their loss; but during the night the pair escaped by a window and were found in the cemetery, where they had nearly succeeded in exhuming the coffin. When taken away they became so violent that it was necessary to secure them. They have been adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum. The case has excited much sympathy throughout the country, as the doctor has quite a reputation for warning and skill in his profession, and his wife being noted for her benevolence and piety.

A Hint of Impudence.

[From the Terre Haute Express.]

Cholly—Excuse my asking, but do you really enjoy talking to yourself? I have noticed you have that habit.

Dolly—I suppose I enjoy it, but why do you ask?

Cholly—O, I didn't know whether you did or not. You see, I didn't know but that the enjoyment you took in talking to yourself was counterbalanced by the infliction of having to listen to yourself at the same time.

During the session of a Sunday school at Sugar Creek, Stark county, Ohio, on Sunday, the Methodist church was struck by lightning and nearly burned. Victor Miller was instantly killed and Louis Miller, son of the pastor, badly burned and Cornelius Anderson is in a critical condition.

At Newman, Cal., yesterday morning, the boiler of a threshing machine near Los Buros exploded, injuring two men. A man named Hodges had a leg broken, one or both eyes destroyed, besides being badly cut by flying pieces of iron.

MARVELOUS CURES.

Wonderful Cases of Recovery From Sickness.

THE MOST STUBBORN DISEASES ERADICATED.

Spontaneous Testimonials to the Skill and Effective Treatment of Dr. McLennan.

A REPUBLICAN reporter overheard, on Washington street, yesterday, a conversation that interested him greatly. Peter Rasmussen, a well-known farmer located a few miles below Phoenix, was relating to the congratulations of a friend upon his very apparent improvement in health.

"Yes," said Mr. Rasmussen, "my condition of comparative health is indeed wonderful, when it is considered that but a few weeks ago I was but a physical wreck. With kidneys and liver deranged to such a degree that physicians had practically given me up as incurable, I lost all hope and made my will with the full expectation of dying within a short time. I was in this condition of mind and body. One Gilmore came to me and counseled that I visit Dr. McLennan. I expressed the opinion that my case was beyond the reach of human skill, but he persisted and fairly packed me off to see the Doctor, telling me on the way of the almost marvelous manner in which he himself had been cured. The first treatment at the hands of Dr. McLennan gave me strength and hope and today I am well. I cannot speak in too high terms of the physician who has done all this for me. His work is marvelous and every day I hear of cases of sickness equal to mine in severity that have yielded to his skill."

GILMORE'S EVIDENCE.
 Pursuing the subject the reporter called around on Mr. Gilmore. He is a member of the thriving firm of Gilmore Bros., blacksmiths, whose extensive shops occupy the southwest corner of Center and Adams streets.

In response to a query relative to his recovery from sickness, he emphatically said: "I gave my restoration to health to the treatment I gave received from Doctor McLennan. For two years I had suffered from laryngitis until my voice was lost to that extent that I could not speak above a whisper, my general health was undermined, and I was going fast on a decline. I tried everything—doctors, the best medicines and all—and nothing seemed of any use. Shortly after Doctor McLennan came here, I placed myself under his care. Today, I feel better than for years past, my throat trouble has disappeared, and I can yell like a cowboy."

Continuing his investigations, the reporter called next on the Doctor himself, at his parlors on the second floor of the Monihan building. The reception room was found crowded with ladies, while on the balcony were seated a number of men awaiting their turn.

The reporter retired to await a more favorable time for securing an interview with the Doctor, and, meanwhile, engaged in conversation with Hon. J. D. Monihan, Chairman of the Board of Insane Asylum Directors, whose office adjoins that of the Doctor. "There seems to be a continuous stream of cure," said Mr. Monihan, "pouring into the next room all day long. They are afflicted with almost every ill that flesh is heir to; but I hear from them, as they go away, nothing but the highest praise for Doctor McLennan and his treatment."

I know, personally, of a number of extraordinary cures he has made, that show him to be a most able physician."

A CASE OF PARALYSIS.

When opportunity offered admittance was gained to the operating room, where a pleasant greeting was given to the reporter. He was working upon a patient under treatment for paralysis. The mode of operation seemed to be a combination of electricity, massage and medical applications.

The gentleman being operated upon is named Lawrence Wentling. During a short absence of the Doctor's he grew enthusiastic in his praise of the treatment received.

"Just four years and three months ago," he said, "I was mining on Lynx creek, near Prescott. One morning on arising I was stricken as quickly as though a bullet had hit me with paralysis in the right side, arm and leg. I was taken to Prescott and have since spent in physicians fees alone over $700. I was at the Castle Creek Hot Springs when I heard that Dr. McLennan was in Phoenix and took the earliest opportunity of coming down and consulting him. I have been under his care for two weeks and see"—he raised his arm above his head—"I can use my arm without trouble and am able to walk without crutches. I am deeply grateful for the good that has been done me, when recovery seemed out of the question."

Another patient whose treatment was witnessed was G. K. Smith, the cleaner and dyer, whose shop is located on Cortez street opposite the Monihan block. He has been troubled for several years with what the Doctors called Sciatica and for five months past has been unable to do any work at all. He placed himself under Doctor McLennan's care about ten days ago when it was discovered that his ailment was a curvature of the spine, caused by the wasting away of the tissue between the vertebrae of the lower portion of the spinal column. He is now much improved. His back is regaining its suppleness, showing that the natural oil is once more secreted, and he confidently expects an entire cure before the Doctor leaves.

Dr. McLennan is a man of fine physique, with every indication of strong natural magnetic power. He ascribes his success in the treatment of the chronic diseases that are known to him to the improved methods he uses and to the superior apparatus he brings to his aid. Those who need his services should not delay seeing him, for Phoenix cannot hope to long retain him.
